

A hand-drawn diagram of a lemon. The lemon is represented by a large, roughly circular outline with a small indentation at the top and a small protrusion at the bottom. Three leaves are attached to the top edge of the lemon. The word "Lemon" is written in the center of the lemon and is underlined. The word "Top" is written near the top indentation. The word "Bottom" is written near the bottom protrusion. The word "Leaf" is written on each of the three leaves.
